

Laymen's Retreat Scheduled by Nazarenes After Thanksgiving

Reservations have been filled for the sixth annual Southern California District Church of the Nazarene laymen's retreat Nov. 27 to 29 at Forest Home in the San Bernardino Mountains.

The campsite will accommodate only 400 persons, according to Kenneth Jilbert, local representative for Torrance First Church of the Nazarene.

Dr. Philip Carlson, a former faculty member at Pasadena College and research director for Lockheed Aircraft Co., will be the special speaker.

The weekend retreat will include inspirational spiritual

Nazarenes To Study The Bible

A Bible study program, designed to lead church members completely through the Bible, is beginning at Torrance First Church of the Nazarene.

The Rev. R. Wallis Kornegay, minister, will conduct the study sessions, beginning Wednesday, Nov. 11. They will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday nights during the regular "Come Ye Apart Hour."

The first session will deal with the reasons for studying the Bible and will cover methods used for better understanding, the Rev. Kornegay said.

Successive sessions will try to use every bit of information and research we have to make it profitable," he said.

The program will continue indefinitely on Wednesday nights, except for one Wednesday a month which is devoted to a missionary service.

Church Plans Fall Series Of Lectures

The Torrance Church of Christ, 3520 Emerald St., will conduct its annual fall lectureship, Nov. 15 through 18.

Dr. Donald McLaughlin, minister, states that Don Gardner, vice president of Pepperdine College, and Dr. Frank Pack, chairman of the Department of Religion at Pepperdine, will be featured speakers.

The theme of the lectureship will be "Christian Maturity."

The lecture will begin each evening at 7:30 with the exception of the opening lectures which will be held at 10:45 a.m. and at 6 p.m. on Sunday.

'Gaslight' to Be Staged at Marymount

"Gaslight," melodrama of a woman who is being driven to madness by her husband, will be staged at Marymount College beginning Nov. 19 and continuing through Nov. 21.

The Patrick Hamilton play will be presented as a senior thesis production by Judith Burdette, theatre arts major, who has won numerous speech and drama awards.

Cast members include Carmen Scotti, Tamara Asseyev, Yolanda Marquez, Jacqueline Wagner, and Sam Brakel.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. and all seats reserved.

Pastor Leaves For Boston Trip

The Rev. Robert Loring Young, minister of The Wayfarers' Chapel, will leave this evening for Boston to attend the meeting of the Board of Managers of the New Church Theological School, Cambridge, Mass.

The Rev. Young is serving his third four-year term as a member of the board of managers. The New Church Theological School is moving to Berkeley, Calif., after more than 75 years in Cambridge. The school will be associated with the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley.

Palette Art Club Meets

The Palette Art Club held the November meeting Friday with Neale Henry of Torrance presiding.

The program included a discussion of the many aids available to persons who choose art as a hobby. A criticism period followed the discussion.
